Decision

Approval to proceed to Statutory Consultation and advertisement for the proposed waiting restrictions on Tibbs Road, Haddenham.

Reasons for the decision

Background

Transport for Buckinghamshire has secured funding from Section 106 contributions for the provision of implementing parking restrictions in the Parish of Haddenham. The funding has been allocated to impose parking restrictions on Tibbs Road and around the Pegasus Way junction to mitigate concerns relating to vehicles stopping on the junction to drop/collect passengers. Please see additional reasons listed below:

- Buckinghamshire Council has secured funding for the statutory consultation and implementation for “No Waiting At Any Time” restrictions on Tibbs Road and Pegasus Way junction.
- These proposals have been developed to comply with Highway Code Rule 243 in addition to creating a safer environment for pedestrians and road users.
- Councillors: Cameron Branston, Nic Brown, Gregory Smith and Haddenham Parish Council have been contacted regarding these proposals and are in agreement for a Statutory Consultation to be undertaken.
