

ARCHAEOLOGICAL EVENTS IN MILTON KEYNES – JANUARY TO JUNE 2001

Site	Project	Contractor	Date	Summary	Publication
Olney to Lavendon & Cold Brayfield Water Main renewal	Watching brief	Archaeological Services & Consultancy	2001/01	No details
Lavendon Grange	Watching brief	Oxford Archaeology Unit	2001/01	A ditch was located adjacent to the Grange.	RoB - note
32 High Street, North Crawley	Watching brief	Archaeological Services and Consultancy Ltd	2001/01	Extension to house did not reveal any archaeological features.	RoB - note
High St Toilets, Newport Pagnell	Watching brief	Archaeologica	2001/02	No details
126 High St, Newport Pagnell	Watching brief	Richard Ivens	2001/02	Base of Civil War trench of the 'Lowe Bulwarke' of the town defences located in deep garage foundations.	RoB - note
Newport Pagnell Rural Water Main Scheme	Watching brief	Archaeological Services & Consultancy Ltd	2001/02	No details	RoB - note
Monkston Park	Evaluation	Bedfordshire County Archaeological Services	2001/02	English Partnership Project. Series of shallow pits and post holes of the prehistoric period together with ditches, pits and post holes of the Middle Iron Age to Roman Period.	Evaluation of whole site not yet completed.
Monkston Park	Geophysical Survey	Bedfordshire County Archaeological Service	2001/03	English Partnership Project. Geophysics to establish the site boundaries of features revealed during evaluation indicated a series of enclosures in the centre of the site.	Evaluation of whole site not yet completed
Hill Farm Garage, Haversham	Evaluation	Archaeological Services & Consultancy	2001/03	Garage built within a known Roman site. Evidence for a curving structure found but lacked dating evidence. Two post-medieval walls found.	RoB - note

Tattenhoe Phase 2B site 33	Evaluation	Thames Valley Archaeological Services	2001/03	Site lay close to Tattenhoe Moated Site. Post-medieval ditches found and WWII ammunition stores photographed.	RoB - note
1 Hill Farm Cottage, Haversham	Watching brief	Archaeological Services and Consultancy Ltd	2001/03	Area around cottages appears to have been landscaped, which removed any evidence of Roman occupation.	RoB - note
Brooklands Farm, Broughton	Watching Brief	Richard Ivens	2001/03	No finds from foundation pits.	RoB - note
Monkston Park Electrical substations	Archaeological Survey	Woodfield Architectural & Archaeological Services	2001/03	English Partnership Project . One weathered Roman sherd found.	Evaluation of whole site not yet completed
Ravenstone Water Main	Watching brief	Archaeological Services & Consultancy Ltd	2001/04	Scheme altered from open cut to drilling along line of road. No archaeological deposits below road base.
Westlands Home, Olney	Watching brief	Archaeologica	2001/04	Well located on the site of an extension	RoB - note
Frenches Farm, Woughton-on-the-Green	Watching brief	Archaeologica	2001/04	Frenches Farm is a timber-framed building of the C17th on the side of the Green. Underpinning revealed a floor, hearth and pottery from an earlier house on the site,	RoB - note
6 Caldecotte Lane, Caldecotte	Watching brief	Oxford Archaeology Unit	2001/04/23	No details
49 High Street, Stony Stratford	Building Recording (voluntary)	P Woodfield	2001/05/16	C18th cellar of a range of buildings behind the White Horse Public House revealed during development and recorded.	RoB - note
Broughton Brook Bridge	Evaluation	Woodfield Architectural & Archaeological Services	21/05/2001	English Partnerships Project . No remains of archaeological interest found on the site of the proposed Bridge	RoB - note