The map contains numerous labels for geographical features and places. Key locations include Ivinghoe, Edlesborough, Stone, and Aldbury. Specific landmarks such as 'Sparrow Hall', 'Church End', 'Sewage Works', 'Reservoir', 'Crabtree Cottage', 'Crabtree Plantation', 'The Coombe', 'Duncombe Farm', and 'Aldbury Newers' are clearly marked. The map also shows a network of roads, a railway line, and various farms and fields. Contour lines indicate the topography of the area, with elevations ranging from approximately 100 to 200 feet. A large, dark grey shaded area is prominent in the central and eastern parts of the map, likely representing a specific region of interest or a particular land use zone.
