Dear Sirs

Licensing Act 2003. Variation. The Huntsman, Unit 5 Walton Court Centre, Aylesbury

I am a consultee regarding the above application.

I note that the premises are adjoining and in close proximity to residential accommodation. There is also a limited history of noise complaints.

The application for daily live and recorded music and karaoke until midnight (23:30 on Sundays) is too open and of concern with regard to the "prevention of public nuisance".

I will make the following representation:

"A noise limiting device shall be fitted and maintained in such a manner as to control all sources of amplified noise (including music and speech) at the premises to the satisfaction of an authorised officer of the responsible Environmental Health Authority. Specifically, this shall mean that amplified noise (including music and speech) shall not be audible within any residential accommodation between 21:00 and 11:00 daily. The noise limiting device shall be adjusted as necessary in accordance with any reasonable written requirement from the said officer".

You may wish to revise the application.

Please contact me if you should require any further information.

Yours faithfully

Paul Irwin
District Environmental Health Officer
