

Appendix A: Development-related Archaeological Fieldwork in Buckinghamshire January to June 2010

Site	Project type	Contractor	Dates	Summary	Report to HER?	Proposed publication
Amersham, Barn at 163 High Street	Building recording and watching brief	ASC	February to May	Recording of 17 th century timber-framed barn. Reduction in floor levels revealed 19 th century and later bottles and ceramics and small pits	Yes	Note
Brill, 15 The Green	Watching brief	JMHS	June	Undated pit and ditch observed, along with footings of an early-modern privy	Yes	Note
Buckingham, London Road	Trial trench evaluation	NA	March	Evaluation in advance of residential development. Pits and gully of probable Iron Age date recorded along with medieval ridge and furrow	Yes	Note
Burnham, Land adjacent to 10 Church Walk	Watching brief	TVAS	March	Negative watching brief despite being located in the historic core of Burnham	Yes	Note
Cheddington, Cheddington Manor	Trial trench evaluation	AS	March to April	Post-medieval brick garden walls revealed during excavation	Yes	Note
Cheddington, 22 Mentmore Road	Watching brief	ASC	April	Watching brief on construction of extension to 17 th -18 th century house with 18 th century forge	No	Note
Chilton, Old Forge	Watching brief	JMHS	April to June	Two 13 th century pits and floor levels relating to the 17 th century forge	Yes	Note
Denham, The Lea Quarry	Excavation	Cotswold Archaeological Trust	May to June	Final phase of excavation reveals early bronze age ring ditch, bronze age field boundaries and extension to Roman inhumation and cremation cemetery.	No	Post-excavation assessment awaited
Dorney, Trumpers Field, Meadow Way	Watching brief	ASC	March	Negative watching brief despite numerous prehistoric cropmarks in the vicinity of the site. Site believed to have been truncated by the construction of the M4.	Yes	Note
Edlesborough, St Mary the Virgin Church	Watching brief	Network Archaeology	February	Eight human skeletal remains, one coin	No	?

Site	Project type	Contractor	Dates	Summary	Report to HER?	Proposed publication
Foscott, Foscott Old Church	Watching brief	JMHS	January	Late 20 th century dumping of building material uncovered during watching brief in former churchyard	Yes	Note
Gerrards Cross, French Horn Site	Trial trench evaluation	JMHS	May	Remains of a post-medieval tenement (walls, throughway, compacted surfaces)	Yes	Note
Haddenham, 26 Rudds Lane	Trial trench evaluation	JMHS	February	Undated posthole and medieval ridge and furrow identified during evaluation	Yes	Note
Haddenham, Spicer Hallfield site	Trial trench evaluation	ASC	June	Evaluation in the historic core of Haddenham. Negative results due to truncation of site by former factory	Yes	Note
Ickford, St Nicholas's Church	Watching brief	TVAS	March	Undated inhumation burials, disarticulated and disturbed bones were recorded during watching brief	Yes	Note
Lillingstone Dayrell, Silverstone race-track	Strip, map and record excavation	Wessex Archaeology	January to February	Probable Romano-British ditch and other undated ditches recorded prior to construction of race-track extension	Yes	Note
Little Missenden, Hill House, Hyde Heath	Watching brief	AS	February	Watching brief on the construction of a new ménage. Negative results despite being located adjacent to a medieval motte and bailey earthwork	Yes	Note
Marsworth, All Saints Church	Building recording and watching brief	ASC	April to May	Forty-five articulated/partially articulated Christian burials, walls and floor surfaces recorded during construction of a new WC, tearoom and drainage works	Yes	Yes
Medmenham, Ferry Nab	Watching brief	JMHS	March	Watching brief during construction of drainage trench. Negative results despite being within the grounds of Medmenham Abbey.	Yes	Note
Mentmore, Woodlands, Crafton Road	Excavation	ASC	June	Strip, map and sample excavation prior to construction of stable block and ménage. Negative results despite being adjacent to the deserted medieval settlement at Crafton	Yes	Note
Newton Leys, Drayton Road site	Geophysical survey	NA	March	Magnetometer survey of residential development site. One circular enclosure and ridge and furrow identified. Fieldwalking in 1990s identified an	Yes	Note. Further investigation recommended