10 CHILD OBESITY INQUIRY REPORT

Mr B Roberts, Chairman of the Health and Adult Social Care (HASC) Select Committee and Mrs L Wheaton, Committee and Governance Adviser attended the meeting to present the recommendations from the Child Obesity Inquiry undertaken by the Select Committee.

Mr Roberts introduced the report by thanking those who had given up their time to talk to the Inquiry Group as part of their evidence gathering and highlighted the following:

- The Government's Childhood Obesity Plan published in 2016, aimed to reduce England's rate of childhood obesity within the next 10 years.
- The inquiry had tested how well Buckinghamshire were doing at tackling the issue.
- It was a complex issue but it was hoped that the recommendations highlighted would give the Council a greater role in facilitating change.
- There had been a lack of a coordinated action plan with targeted interventions to help reduce child obesity in Bucks.
- The report focused on healthy eating rather than physical activity as this had recently been driven by the "Active Bucks" initiative.
- The inquiry group heard from Public Health colleagues about their statutory duty to deliver the National Child Measuring Programme as part of the evidence gathering.
- A number of different areas within the Council could help facilitate and deliver change e.g. the Fostering team and Members, in their role as community leaders
- The inquiry group heard from a Head teacher who had invested in refurbishing their school kitchen and the challenges they faced.
- Mr Roberts also stated that if Personal, Social and Health Education (PSHE) became a statutory subject in schools, the PSHE Leads should be represented on the Healthy Communities Partnership subgroup.
- Building on early years and school-based initiatives and involving parents was also key in supporting children to make healthier food choices.

Cabinet raised and discussed the following points:

- The importance of parental involvement from a young age, before they enter school.
- It was made clear that the County Council did not have the resources to provide ambassadors to champion healthy lifestyles but could work with schools to make sure the right messages were being communicated. Schools themselves would have to take more of a lead in delivering the programme. A Member suggested the use of School Governors as ambassadors.
- More emphasis to be put on physical activity and Mr Roberts confirmed that if Cabinet accepts the recommendation to set-up a subgroup then the work of Active Bucks would be part of this.. Initiatives such as Simply Walk to be highlighted and using Local Area Forums (LAF) to help drive it forward.
- It was reflected that it was a national issue with big financial and health costs. Further work needed with parents before school age, role of health visitors to be considered and working with districts to ensure that access to leisure centres and sporting events were open to all.

Cabinet responded to the recommendations as follows:
