ANNUAL BUCKS DEBATE: 'GROWING PAINS AND GROWING GAINS'

On Thursday 13th July (9.30-11.30am), the County Council is hosting 'Growing Pains and Growing Gains', an important debate on Buckinghamshire's growth. This year's Debate will be focused on the challenges and the opportunities presented by housing and economic growth across the County and the strategic role that local government should play.

Ben Page, Chief Executive of Ipsos MORI, will be facilitating the Debate which will also feature a panel of local leaders from across the public and business sectors.

Members will be invited to give their views and ask questions of Ben and the panel.

The Debate will also be webcast and will feature on Facebook Live, with local residents and businesses having the opportunity to contribute their views through Twitter using #BucksDebate.
