

Archaeological Events in Milton Keynes, January-June 2010

Site	Organisation	Event	Date	Summary	Publication
Stratford House, Stony Stratford	Northamptonshire Archaeology	Trial trenching	January	Six trial trenches revealed a pit containing 2 small abraded sherds of Iron Age and Roman pottery and several struck flints, and a number of features of late post-medieval date thought to relate to the site's later use as a tannery and private garden.	No r/o 12 High Street, Olney	Northamptonshire Archaeology	Trial trenching	February	There were two modern pits and a former hedge-line in Trench 1. The western part of the development site had been heavily disturbed by modern dumping and levelling activities, whilst the eastern part has remained undisturbed.	No
Cowley's Parchment Works, Newport Pagnell	Albion Archaeology / Bedfordshire County Archaeological Service	Trial trenching	March	Three test-pits revealed sunken wood-lined lime pits and a brick wall foundation.	No
Bradwell Abbey, Railway Fencing, Bradwell Abbey	Archaeological Services & Consultancy Ltd	Watching brief	March	Negative watching brief on fencing and tree planting works at scheduled priory site	No
Intervet, Walton Manor, Walton	John Moore Heritage Services	Trial trenching	May	Features relating to medieval village earthworks revealed.	No
St Mary and St Giles Church, Stony Stratford	Archaeological Services & Consultancy Ltd	Watching brief	May - Ongoing	Ongoing.	No
Land between Pitcher Lane and School Lane, Loughton	Archaeological Services & Consultancy Ltd	Trial trenching	June	Seven trenches revealed no significant archaeological features.	No

Archaeological Events in Milton Keynes, January-June 2010

Site	Organisation	Event	Date	Summary	Publication
Manor Farm Quarry, Old Wolverton	Cambridge Archaeological Unit / Phoenix	Strip, map and sample	Ongoing	Excavations revealed a further (third) cursus monument, Bronze Age field system and small segmented hengiform monument.	Article