REDUCING RE-OFFENDING:

Targeting and managing harm and risk

Key aims:

- A review by police and other criminal justice partners on whether processes for identifying and referring individuals in contact with the criminal justice system into substance misuse services are as effective as they could be.
- Improved data sharing on gangs, with the aim of reducing exploitation of young people through gang membership and reducing and preventing violent crime, especially knife crime.
- A modern offender management strategy for Thames Valley addressing gaps in existing schemes and tackling offenders across the crime spectrum who pose the greatest risk or threat of harm.
- Identification and implementation of best practice in the management of perpetrators of domestic violence, particularly focussing on serial perpetrators.
