

Appendix A: Response to Statutory Consultation

B482 Marlow Road, Stokenchurch raised table zebra crossing

Table 1: Response to Consultation Survey Feedback

| Proposals   | Unsure about the proposals | Objects to the proposals | Supports the proposals |
|---|----------------------------|--------------------------|------------------------|
| Do you agree with the proposal Traffic-calming support? | 6                          | 9                        | 15                     |

In additional Thames Valley Police confirmed no objection to proposals (See Appendix B)

Table 2: Comments in Support

| Comment  | Frequency |
|--|-----------|
| Will reduce speeding   | 10        |
| Additional humps/traffic calming needed further along B482       | 4         |
| Will assist school children                                      | 1         |
| Additional humps/traffic calming needed further along Wycombe Rd | 2         |
| Drainage issues must also be addressed                           | 1         |

Table 3: Comments in Object

| Comment  | Frequency |
|--|-----------|
| Waste of money – no collision history                            | 5         |
| Traffic signals would be better                                  | 3         |
| Concern of damage to vehicles                                    | 2         |
| Concern of horse boxes   | 1         |
| Better illumination required                                     | 1         |
| Additional humps/traffic calming needed further along Wycombe Rd | 2         |
| Additional humps needed further along B482                       | 1         |

Table 4: Not Sure Comments:

| Comment                                    | Frequency |
|--|-----------|
| Not sure of benefit                        | 1         |
| Additional humps needed further along B482 | 2         |
| Ponding/Drainage Concerns                  | 1         |
| Concern of bus stop position during works  | 1         |
| Wanted to know funding source              | 1         |