Ward(s) affected: Not ward specific

Recommendations: That the Finance and Resources Select Committee approve the approach to the budget scrutiny process for the 2022/23 draft budget.

Reason for decision: Members require assurance that the budget proposals put forward for the Council are realistic and deliverable and in line with the Council's priorities, as outlined in its Strategic Plan. The Finance and Resources Select Committee will conduct meetings with Cabinet Members in January 2022 in order to develop the conclusions and recommendations of its 2022/23 Budget Scrutiny Inquiry and as such an approach requires agreement.

Executive summary

- 1.1 Buckinghamshire Council is developing a three-year revenue budget and a four-year capital budget. Members require assurance that the budget proposals put forward for the Council are realistic and deliverable in line with the Council's priorities, as outlined in its strategic plan. The Finance and Resources Select Committee will conduct meetings with Cabinet Members in January 2022 in order to develop the conclusions and recommendations of its 2022/23 Budget Scrutiny Inquiry.

Content of report

1.2 Through scrutiny of financial data and performance information and by questioning Cabinet Members and relevant supporting officers, the Inquiry Group will explore the risks and assess whether budget proposals are sufficiently robust in the current context. After gathering evidence, the Inquiry Group will produce a report making recommendations to Cabinet to highlight any areas of risk and to suggest any amendments to be considered ahead of the Budget being agreed by Full Council in February.

1.3 Scrutiny of the budget is a priority within the Select Committee's remit. The subject falls within the remit of the Leader, but involves all Cabinet Members.

1.4 A key task for the Finance and Resources Select Committee is to scrutinise a Draft Buckinghamshire Council Budget for 2022/23 and the Medium Term Financial Plan.

1.5 The Inquiry will result in recommendations to Cabinet to ensure that the Budget for 2022/23 is robust.

1.6 Key timing considerations

- 5th January 2022 - the Section 151 Officer will give a more detailed private briefing to the Inquiry Group to confirm the Local Government Settlement and highlight any key challenges or budget pressures that members should be aware of. Members will also be informed of any public consultation feedback and guided through the Draft Budget paperwork.
- 6th January 2022 – Cabinet agrees draft budget
- Budget Scrutiny 10th, 11th and 13th January 2022
- 15th February 2022 – Cabinet recommends final budget
- 23rd February 2022 – Council agrees final budget

1.7 Key Stakeholders

- Cabinet Members

- Corporate Management Team
- Public (in terms of consultation)

Evidence Gathering

1.8 The Inquiry Group will be provided with a considerable amount of information as background to the financial proposals, including:

- Information provided by the Service Director for Corporate Finance
- Portfolio budget summary information, including any proposals for significant savings plans or capital investments.
- Published Performance data
- Benchmarking data for certain portfolios such as Childrens Services, Health and Wellbeing and Transport
- Three days of meetings with Cabinet Members
- Consultation feedback
- Questions from the Public via social media

1.9 The Budget Scrutiny Inquiry Group, working closely with the Scrutiny Officer, will identify some key lines of enquiry to follow during the Portfolio Holder meetings. Whilst the portfolio areas are very different, there will be consistent questions that can be put to all of them, for example:

- How will your proposals impact on Buckinghamshire residents?
- How do your budget proposals fit with the Council's overall objectives and priorities as outlined in the strategic plan?
- What are the biggest areas of risk in your budget and what plans are in place to mitigate them?
- What are the key climate change and environment actions you are taking and how do these impact upon your budget?

Consultation and communication

1.10 Meetings where each individual Cabinet Member will be questioned on their budget proposals should be held in public and webcast. Meetings with Cabinet Members are planned to take place over 3 days during the week commencing 10 January 2022.

This helps members and officers to keep their focus and to identify interdependencies across portfolio areas.

- 1.11 Meetings and webcasts can be publicised to encourage public involvement. Questions will be invited from members of the public via social media and e-mail during Budget Scrutiny week.
- 1.12 A press release and social media communications are required to launch Budget Scrutiny week.
- 1.13 Feedback will be fed through from the public budget consultation exercise

Next steps and review

The budget scrutiny week will commence on 10 January 2022. The inquiry will result in recommendations to Cabinet to ensure that the Budget is robust. Cabinet will consider these recommendations at its meeting on 15 February 2022. Appendix A notes the outline project plan and Appendix B details the timetable for the sessions.
