Reasons for the Panel's Decision

In reaching their decision the Panel carefully considered all the written representations together with oral submissions made at the hearing.

The Panel noted that the Applicant had recognised the concerns raised by the Licensing Authority and the Interested Parties in respect of the licensing objectives of the Prevention of Crime and Disorder and the Prevention of Public Nuisance and the Protection of Children From Harm and had significantly amended his application prior to the hearing to address those concerns. These amendments had resulted in the Licensing Authority withdrawing its objection. The Panel took account of the fact that no representations had been received from other Responsible Authorities, in particular, no concerns were raised by Thames Valley Police or Environmental Health.

Whilst sympathetic to the Interested Parties, the Panel was conscious that it could only consider representations pertaining to the requested licensable activity, namely the supply of alcohol on the premises and how this would impact on the licensing objectives of the Prevention of Public Nuisance, the Prevention of Crime and Disorder, Public Safety and the Protection of Children from Harm. The Panel noted that the Licensing Officer as part of his oral submissions and within his report had identified that a number of the concerns raised by Interested Parties related to matters which were not part of the licensing regime but rather form part of the planning regime and were not matters that it could take account.

The Panel were mindful that issues relating to Public Nuisance arising from potential noise disturbance are dealt with by other relevant legislation regulated by Environmental Health.

In making their decision, the Panel also considered the legislation, the statutory guidance and the Council's own licensing policy.

The Panel also took into account into account the relevant provisions of the Human Rights Act 1998, namely:

- Article 6 – the right to a fair hearing
- Article 8 – respect for private and family life
- Article 1, First Protocol – peaceful enjoyment of possessions.

The Panel considered that in all the circumstances the substantial amendments the Applicant had made to his application to alleviate concerns raised sufficiently promoting the licensing objectives of the Prevention of Public Nuisance, the Prevention of Crime and Disorder, Public Safety and the Protection of Children from Harm and therefore agreed to grant the application.

INFORMATIVE: The Panel noted that should issues relating to the Prevention of Public Nuisance and/or Crime and Disorder occur following the grant of the premises licence any party is able to request a review of the premises licence under Section 51 Licensing Act 2003.

Any Party aggrieved by the Decision given in this Notice may make a written Appeal within 21 days to the Clerk to the Justices, Wycombe and Beaconsfield Magistrates Court, Milton Keynes Magistrates Court, 301 Silbury Boulevard, Milton Keynes, Buckinghamshire MK9 2AJ.
